25th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS,

The SSAA has enjoyed a bumper anniversary year in 2012 with three very successful exhibitions so far.

Record sales at The SSAA Spring Exhibition in Dundas St Gallery, Edinburgh, generated in excess of £6000 in commission - 10% of which was donated to the charity Mary's Meals.

The SSAA Summer Exhibition in the House for and Art Lover, Glasgow, also saw a number of new members exhibit with the Society for the first time.

This Exhibition had a special Royal Visit on 27th July, by our Patron, HRH The Duke of Gloucester, who closely examined each of the hundred exhibits, and generously agreed to formally confer the Honorary Fellowships on three distinguished SSAA members: Hamish Haswell-Smith; Dr Patricia Cain; and Sir Anthony Wheeler. SSAA ACTIVITIES:

The SSAA has continued to create a programme of events throughout 2012 including:- Life Class and Print Workshop at Leith School of Art; and several Paint and Pint Days - at National Museum of Flight at East Fortune, the Pittenweem Arts Festival, and The Hermitage, Dunkeld.

The most recent gathering at Dunkeld attracted a record attendance of artists to the autumn trees on a sunny but chilly saturday in October. The group adjourned to the nearby 'Taybank' for refreshment and contemplation. Members are indebted to Samantha Williams for organising these enjoyable and stimulating events. SSAA e-Magazine "Ligne et Couleur"

Members who have access to the internet can find more photographs and reports of SSAA recent events in our on-line emagazine, "Ligne et Couleur".

www.ssaagallery.org.uk

This experimental innovation for our 25th year provides archive images in PDF format of all recent exhibition catalogues, and also the social gatherings. It is now becoming more established as a vehicle of communication among members. The ambition is that ultimately members will visit the site at times which are convenient to themselves and keep up to date with forthcoming activities. Eventually we hope to make 'Ligne et Couleur' an interactive resource for SSAA.
